

Al Rostamani Group continues its strong display of commitment towards emiratisation at the UAE Careers Fair 2009

Dubai, UAE. March 23rd, 2009 - The Al Rostamani Group has again demonstrated its commitment to the UAE Emiratization program by participating in the UAE Careers Fair (29th -31st March 2009).

The Al Rostamani Group throughout its years of participation has steadily increased its efforts towards the Emiratization program.

This was further recognised when Tanmia (the National Human Resource Development and Employment Authority) presented the Al Rostamani Group with an award in the category of Trade and Retail sector.

To further enhance its dedication to the emiratization process, the group has not only appointed a dedicated Emiratization Manager, but has initiated specialised training and development programmes for Emirati staff, as well as implemented a high achiever programme which will fast track career growth.

The results of these initiatives are already bearing fruit, as the group has recruited 28 UAE nationals since January 2009.
