

Al Rostamani Group awarded Certificate Of Appreciation by Emirates Environmental Group

The Al Rostamani Group has been awarded a Certificate of Appreciation from the Emirates Environmental Group (EEG), for participating in the paper collection campaign 2008. Al Rostamani group is an environmentally committed organization that emphasizes and practices waste minimization and recycling.

The Emirates Environmental Group is a voluntary, non-government organization devoted to protecting the environment through various means such as education, action programs and community involvement.

Both organizations have supported each other for a better environmental future.

